

Frank Repholz Jr. and John Holahan III

"We are always thinking of ways to offer a better home. Using innovation, technology and solid proven construction techniques have made Liberty Homes an award-winning company. We're proud to be part of the VisitAbility program. We feel it is another forward way of thinking that makes everyone welcome now and in the future while increasing the home's value."

John Holahan III, president Liberty Homes

Basic Home Access For Everyone

Salutes

JOHN HOLAHAN III and FRANK REPHOLZ JR.
co-owners, Liberty Homes

Liberty Homes has a solid reputation for not only building homes, but for building trust throughout the Poconos. Over 1,000 homeowners have selected Liberty to custom craft homes ranging from simple vacation chateau to luxurious primary estate. The company's philosophy is to produce the best home for the buyer's budget. Each home is finished to the highest standards ensuring it will stand the test of time.

Firmly committed to incorporating innovative building techniques coupled with energy efficiency designed for lifestyles of today and tomorrow, Liberty is a natural choice to participate in VisitAbility in Pennsylvania. John Holahan, who is active in the Pocono Builders Association, is a leader in Pennsylvania's building sector. He is steadfast in his commitment to develop high standards in the industry. VisitAbility offers the builder another opportunity to achieve these objectives. In addition to basic components, Liberty's VisitAble home features a cozy fireplace, volume ceilings, secluded master suite and a bounty of amenities designed to enhance the natural wooded mountain beauty of the site.

